

I oppose allowing the Bank of America group to release my phone number for any purpose. As a full time nursing student and mother of a young child, I do not wish to be bothered by rude telemarketers when I am spending quality time with my family in the evening.